The Court orders that the motion to waive fees is GRANTED for this case only.

The Court orders that the delayed application for leave to appeal is DENIED. To the extent that the circuit court relied on appellate proceedings in 1977, that was error. This Court, however, does not reverse where the right result was obtained, albeit for the wrong reason. See People v Bauder, 269 Mich App 174, 187; 712 NW2d 506 (2005). The motion for relief from judgment was improperly brought, where defendant has no grounds in which to seek relief from judgment from his 1975 conviction in light of later legal proceedings. Defendant's remaining issues are without merit.
